CLUBS WILL PLAY BASEBALL GAME

Westmoreland and Commonwealth to Meet at Lee Park on Tuesday, June 18.

Articles of agreement were signed yesterday for the annual baseball game between the Westmoreland and Commonwealth Clubs, which will be played at Lee Park on Tuesday, June 18, at 4:30 o'clock. There will be no silver offering at the gate and no collection. You get in by card, and every member of the two clubs may draw cards by applying to the dealers. It promises to be some game. Julien Hill is captain of the Commonwealth team, and while the Westmoreland players have not elected a captain, Henry S. Hotchkiss, chairman of the house committee, has been attending to the details. He posted the forfeit money yesterday, helped get the park, so everything is in shape except practice. It was decided that the game would not be played for charity, the field having been worked rather hard of late, the idea being to have the gate free to guarantee a big crowd. Several of the players may be drafted by the United States League.

Randolph Cardozo and Thomas P. Bryan will be the Westmoreland battery. Julien Hill and Boone will perform for the Commonwealth. The city audience has been especially engaged for the occasion, and all doctors who are members of either club and who are not busy that afternoon are respectfully invited to occupy seats on the players' bench.

The Westmoreland team will be picked from the following: Cardozo, Cornett, Elliott, Christian, Grant, Turpin, Whitlock, Blunt, Gordon, Hotchkiss, E. D., Jr., Hotchkiss, Henry S. Gray, Bryan, T. P., Bryan, Dr. Robert C. Williams, and Leske. Commonwealth: Hill, Branch, Boyd, Richardson, Boone, Leigh, Johnson, Buford, McNeill, Barkdale, Fleming, Broadus, Tennolds, Christian, Jeffers.

stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was offensive and I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I concluded to try Peruna, and I found relief and a cure for that dreadful disease, catarrh. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manlin, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle of it in my house all the time."

passenger, making his first aeroplane flight preparatory to taking up aviation, was instantly killed and Aviator Dubouff was seriously injured in a 200-foot fall here this afternoon. They had just gone up in Dubouff's monoplane, and were circling the field when something happened to the engine and the machine dived to earth. Every bone in Viscont's body was broken.

LIME-GRINDING IS STOPPED BY COURT

State Officials Enjoined From Putting Farmers' Law Into Effect.

Until final decision is rendered by the Supreme Court of Appeals, the state cannot proceed with the grinding of limestone by convict labor, in compliance with the act of the Legislature. An injunction was issued yesterday morning by Judge R. Carter Scott, in the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, prohibiting Auditor C. Lee Moore and State Treasurer A. W. Hartman from paying out any money under the act. The state is thus prevented from buying or leasing quarries or purchasing machinery.

Inasmuch as the lime-grinders of the State had indicated their intention of attacking the constitutionality of the law in the courts, the state officials have been enjoined from putting the law into effect until a determination may be made by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court will be asked to dissolve the injunction.

Array of Attorneys.

Richard Evelyn Boyd, A. Caperton Braxton and J. S. Eggleston represented the petitioners, who are the commercial lime burners and grinders, asking for the injunction. For the respondents, the discharging officers of the State and the Convict Lime Board, there appeared Attorney—General Samuel W. Williams, Charles V. Meredith and John Pickrel.

It is the contention of the petitioners that the act constituting the lime board and providing for the purchase and operation of quarries is unconstitutional, because the State is not to be permitted, under its organic law, to engage in any work of internal improvement excepting public roads. In reply, it is argued that the law is a provision for using convict labor.

SOCIALISTS HAVE CITY CANDIDATES

Public Ownership Platform of Would-Be Mayor and Councilmen.

The only semblance of opposition to the nominees of the Democratic primary in next Tuesday's municipal election is in the circulation by the Socialist party of ballots and campaign arguments.

For Mayor, to oppose D. C. Richardson, the candidate is T. J. Payne, a sheet metal worker. For the City Council from Lee Ward R. B. Greenway, a molder, offers himself as a Socialist. George A. Johnson, also a molder, is a candidate from Jefferson Ward, while George M. Norris, a draughtsman-designer, stands for the Socialist doctrine as an aspirant for the Council from Clay Ward. But one man appears from each of the three wards named, and no one from Madison.

The ballots state that the Socialist candidates have for their program the following: Municipal tenements, municipal commission supply house, municipal hospital, municipal employment bureau, municipal employment of unemployed, municipal aid to school children, municipal ownership of public utilities, sanitary streets and alleys in working class districts, abolition of contract system on public work, public parks, public playgrounds, public libraries and public baths.

The consummation of this program would, it is asserted, cut the cost of living in Richmond in half.

THIRD TERMER UNDER ROLLER

In such other cases as the roll call was asked for, opportunity by the Taft men. It was desired in order that the committee might go unanimously on record in favor of seating of the delegates. The Roosevelt men on the committee, or those who have indicated support of some of the Roosevelt contestants, asked searching questions, and repeatedly prolonged the allotted half hour or hour of discussion in their desire to establish fully the merits of the Southern contest.

After the noon hour the demands for votes became less numerous, and in the majority of the Florida and Georgia cases, the Taft delegates were seated by viva voce votes, a scattering of "no" greeting the majority of those in the Georgia contests.

With opposing votes, controversy presented questions of regularity in Florida and Georgia, and with the Taft and Roosevelt contest managers assuring their opinions in vigorous language as to the character of Southern Republicanism, the day's session took on an interest that held the committee members closely.

The Georgia contests were of a distinctly legal character. Ormsby McKim, the local counsel, contended that the Taft delegates had been held at a time and under a call that could not be legal because the annual registration lists had not been approved.

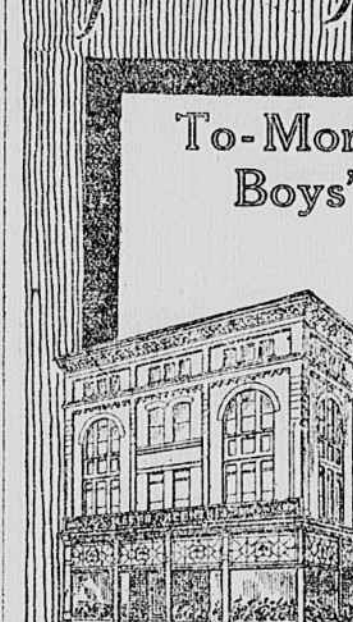

Taft Delegates Deny It.

This contention was denied by the Taft delegates. Their local attorney, however, but part of the argument in the cases. The Taft forces, led by Henry L. Johnson, a negro attorney of Atlanta, whose argument was frequently applauded by the committee members, characterized the Roosevelt delegates in Georgia as "after thought" and declared that there had been no question in Georgia as to the interpretation of the State law "until, after the advent of a stranger from the North," who reached the state about April 15. They do not name the "stranger," but the committee members laughed as they thought they guessed his identity.

After the Arkansas cases had been decided Committee member Lowden, of Illinois, laughed heartily that General Powell Clayton, the veteran leader of Arkansas delegation-at-large, had himself instigated the contests against his faction.

From Florida, in the cases of the delegation-at-large and of the First District came two contesting delegations, each regarded as pro-Roosevelt, and each hostile to the other, as well as to the Taft delegates.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 309 Hall Street.

Remarkable progress has been made on the new Mayo Bridge during the past month. Three arches have been completed on the north end of the structure, and the foundation of the north abutment on the Richmond side has been laid. Gauging the work by the progress now being made, the Richmond end will be practically completed before the end of the month.

Work on the south or Manchester end has already been started. A portion of the old bridge has been torn away and the island abutment is now under construction, as is a cofferdam around one of the piers. This end of the bridge is expected to give the least trouble. Not only is the season for the work the best, but the contractors will be guided by experience gained on the north end and will have less water to contend with from the present indications the bridge will be ready for use at the time specified in the contract.

Suit Dismissed Third Time.

The suit of C. W. Fletcher against Judge Austin was dismissed yesterday by Judge E. H. Wells in the Hustings Court. Part I. Pritchard was suing for a small amount alleged to be due him. The case was heard twice before Judge H. A. Maurice in the Police Court, Part 2, and judgment in favor of the defendant rendered each time.

Redford Made Deputy Sergeant.

In order that he might have the proper authority to enforce order in the courtroom during the session of the Hustings Court, Part 2, J. Lacy Redford, custodian of the building and parkkeeper of Washington Park, was yesterday by order of Judge E. H. Wells created a deputy sergeant of the court. This was done on the recommendation of Deputy Sergeant J. G. Saunders and City Sergeant John L. Satterfield.

Although now the holder of three official titles, Lacy is only lucky enough to draw one salary each month, the new job being an honorary affair without any emoluments.

Athletics Win Another.

In a fast, snappy game the Athletics yesterday downed the Fulton Eagles by a score of 9 to 0 at the former's new park at Forest and Ewell Streets. The feature of the game was the pitching of Hayes, who was seen in an Athletic uniform for the first time yesterday. He sent ten men to the bench by the strike-out course, and was credited with six assists. He only ate lowed three scratch hits. A game will be played on the same grounds to-morrow at 2 P. M.

With the Police.

C. C. Elder, thirty-six years old, was arrested yesterday, charged with creating a disturbance in a downtown saloon. John McFarland, twenty-two years old, was arrested yesterday on a warrant, in which he is charged by Mrs. M. Heaton with attempting to cheat and defraud her of a board bill amounting to $125.00.

A. P. Moore, forty years old, was arrested on a warrant, in which he was charged with non-support. His wife related and bailed him out. He will be given a chance to straighten out his affairs before his case is called in the Police Court to-morrow morning.

Rumsey Farmer was yesterday sent to jail for six months in default of security in the sum of $100 for his good behavior for that period of time. Farmer was charged with being drunk and resisting arrest.

Chief Warner was a visitor to the Third Station yesterday, and was very well pleased with conditions in the Third District, which, in proportion to the size and number of men, is the most orderly in the city.

Children's Day at Church.

Children's day will be observed at the Clifton Street Baptist Church to-day at the morning service. A good program, consisting of songs and recitations, has been arranged. The revival service which has been successfully conducted by the Rev. J. H. Edwards will be closed to-night, the subject selected being "Christian Stability."

The Woodland Heights Baptist Sunday school will have its annual children's day service this morning at 10 o'clock. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Rev. W. C. Phillips, D. D., will preach this morning at the Baptist Church. Children's day exercises will be held at the evening service.

Leave for Boston.

A. E. Phillips left yesterday for Boston, where he goes to represent Davis Council, No. 1, of the United States, at the annual meeting of the National Council, which will be held at the Hotel Hamilton, Boston, June 10-12.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. C. R. Dunn, of Backsville, is spending a few days in the Southside as the guest of relatives.

Miss Dorothy Hayes is the guest of Miss N. R. Adams.

Mrs. R. W. Andrews, of New York, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mollie Hinnant, of West Fourteenth.

Z. W. Ward, who has been visiting his son, J. T. Ward, of East River, will leave for his home in Backsville to-day.

Mrs. R. O. White, who has been visiting in Powhatan, has returned home.

What Facts Foreshadow.

"It is in view of these facts and what these facts foreshadow that I wish to make my appeal to the sober judgment of all men who believe that the usefulness of the Republican party has not ended. Every man who wishes to see the Republican party continue to exist should at once protest against those who are deliberately proceeding to wreck it. The Taft leaders speak as if they were the regular Republicans, not conceding that Taft is a test of regularity. The Republican party is not in commission, nor has it appointed as its receivers the nine Republican committeemen I have mentioned, nor their other colleagues, who have in similar fashion been repudiated by a popular vote of the Republicans of their States.

"Nor is the question now at issue one as to the personal preference of any Republican for any particular man for President, or for the doctrine, which that man embodies. The question is now merely whether the deliberately expressed judgment of the great majority of the rank and file of the Republican party is to be no less than deliberately nullified by the very men whose leadership has just been repudiated by the same majority. A nomination obtained by the votes of the delegates seated in utter defiance of justice as these two Alabama delegates have just been seated, would be worthless to the man obtaining it, and would be indignantly repudiated by the party as a whole.

"Apparently certain national committeemen and certain of the bosses, who from the outside influence the national committee, have set to learn that the rank and file of the Republican party must be treated as the masters, and not the servants of their representatives. The Republican party cannot continue to exist unless its official relation is determined by the expression of the sober and deliberate judgment of the majority of the party."
